PENSIONS INVESTMENT

Pensions Investment at Travers Smith

Pension scheme trustees and sponsors are taking an increasingly sophisticated approach to investment. Our Pensions Investment Practice (part of our Pensions Sector) has market-leading specialists in financial services, capital markets, derivatives, structured products and investment funds.

We have a deep understanding of the particular concerns and perspectives of pension scheme trustees and we advise on the full range of pension investment arrangements, including:

- Liability driven investment (LDI) and cash flow driven investment (CDI) mandates.
- Investment management agreements (IMAs), transition management agreements.
- Fiduciary management.
- Custody arrangements.
- Investment funds, including: regulated and unregulated, longonly, private equity and venture capital, insurance-wrapped funds, infrastructure, debt, real estate, structured finance, hedge funds and listed funds.
- Investment aspects of scheme covenant/funding arrangements.

- Derivatives and repo, including: negotiation of ISDAs, GMRAs and GMSLAs, longevity, interest rate, inflation, FX and other risk hedging.
- Clearing and collateral management.
- Asset transition exercises, including in relation to scheme mergers and bulk annuity transactions.
- Investment in structured finance products.
- Regulation, including EMIR, MiFID and SFTR.
- Tax structuring of investment arrangements.

Travers Smith has strong experience across a number of different areas and sectors, allowing it to advise with an unusually high level of insight.
